Toora Women Inc.

Toora Women Inc. is a not-for-profit organisation which has been delivering services to women in the Australian Capital Territory and surrounds since the early 1980s operating from within the mission of safety, respect and choice for women.

Our current domestic violence, drug and alcohol and homelessness programs range across a variety of settings such as crisis and transitional accommodation, day programs and outreach support, allowing Toora to provide a wrap-around trauma informed care model, in an integrated service system.

We support women in the ACT and surrounding regions who are:

- ☐ escaping domestic/family violence
- ☐ experiencing drug and alcohol issues
- ☐ living with mental illness
- ☐ homeless or at risk of homelessness
- ☐ exiting prison

Toora Women Inc...

Provide individual counselling for women who have experienced:

- the impact of their own or another's drug and alcohol issues
- mental health issues
- domestic, family and sexual violence
- homelessness or needing help to stay out of the homelessness system
- incarceration in the Alexander Maconachie centre.

I am and was supported extremely well and I felt safe knowing that I have support from my case worker who understands old women from other cultures.

Thanh aged 61

Toora AOD Service gave me a framework to lead a normal life again whilst building the foundation for my recovery and establishing a support network
