The 80s called and it wants action today!

This National Homelessness Week I'm joining Toora's 1982 Rewind Challenge by accepting the challenge to wear an 80s-inspired ensemble to [work/the dog park/ school pick-up] on Thursday, 6 August 2026.

The statistics below hurt and it's clear that what Toora started 44 years still matters today. Safe housing is key.

- According to 2024 ABS stats, at least 2 in 5 assaults recorded by state and territory police were family and domestic violence ('FDV') related. Victims of FDV related assault were most commonly:
 - Female (61-80%)
 - Assaulted by an intimate partner (51-81%)
 - At the residential location (47-87%)
- Median age of death for people sleeping rough: 46 years.

So join me by accepting Toora's 1982 Rewind Challenge, daring me to go bolder with my outfit choice with a donation at www.toora.org.au/1982-rewind-challenge or sharing the challenge with friends and colleagues.

Because everyone deserves safe housing.
